

clcNetworking chez Ketterthill

On Wednesday, October 4, 2017, Ketterthill Laboratories hosted the 4th edition of clcNetworking on the theme of "digital health for the benefit of patients and serving professionals".

The event was attended by around a hundred personalities from the world of entrepreneurship.

They were welcomed by the president of the clc, Fernand Ernster, as well as by Stéphane Gidenne, managing director of Laboratoires Ketterthill.
